2020 Queenstown Molecular Biology Meetings in Shanghai

Notice of Rescheduling

Dear speakers and sponsors,

Given current efforts in the fight against the coronavirus outbreak, we have decided to postpone the 2020 Queenstown Molecular Biology Meetings in Shanghai originally scheduled for March 19-20, 2020. We are closely monitoring the situation and will provide an update regarding new dates for the event, pending further assessment of the situation and in compliance with guidance from the relevant authorities.

Thank you very much for your support and understanding.

Yours sincerely,

Ming-Wei Wang, M.D., Ph.D.

Director, the National Center for Drug Screening
